

Privacy statement

General

Digne Consult BV (hereinafter referred to as DC) respects the privacy of all visitors to its website www.digneconsult.com and www.theyoungprofessionalgroup.com, its (potential) customers and other (potential) relations. You can view our websites at any time without sharing any personal data with DC.

Personal data provided to DC, are handled with the greatest possible care and adequately secured. Your data will not be sold and traded. DC complies in all cases with the requirements set by the Personal Data Protection Act (AVG).

Personal Data

When DC delivers a service to you or if you otherwise have contact with DC, for example by e-mail or by the contact form on the DC website, DC will record the data you have provided. DC only stores and processes the personal data that you have provided.

DC also informs parties interested in our services by a newsletter. Every newsletter contains a link to unsubscribe. You may also have yourself removed from the file at any time you wish. The subscriber file of the newsletter will not be provided to third parties.

DC uses your data for the best result of its services. Your data will only be used for the purpose for which you provided the information. Your data will never be provided to third parties without your explicit permission, unless this is necessary in the context of the execution of the agreement with DC or if this is legally required. Your personal data will be stored for as long as this is necessary according to the nature of the contact.

DC processes personal data such as name, business address, telephone number and e-mail address. All personal data are properly secured.

We have concluded a Procurement Agreement with each of our independent collaborating professionals.

Everyone who works together within DC knows what to do in a data breach. We will properly document possible data leaks and report to you, the customer's contact and the Personal Data Authority within 72 hours.
